Easy Access!

Access to the METROPOLITAN EXPO is easy, as a large number of transportation options are available, including Bus and Metro.

The exhibition centre is located at the end of the Attiki Odos Expressway, after the Athens International Airport, only two km from the airport buildings and a few minutes from the metro and suburban railway stations, which are connected to the exhibition centre via regular shuttle bus service.

Its location renders it the ideal destination for people travelling by plane who want to make a quick trip to Greece for Posidonia 2016.

More specifically:

By car

Use the Attiki Odos Expressway, direction towards the Airport. Signage on the Attiki Odo Expressway leads to the exhibition centre. You have to drive past the Airport, and the exhibition centre is located 2 km down the road.

By air

METROPOLITAN EXPO is located within the Athens International Airport "Eleftherios Venizelos" complex. There is a regular shuttle bus service between the airport and the exhibition centre.

Shuttle Bus and Taxi Service

Shuttle bus service is provided by the organisers. The Shuttle bus schedule will be announced closer to the exhibition, and will provide access to the venue from various locations in Athens and major hotels. There will be a frequent shuttle bus service from the Athens Airport to the Metropolitan Expo.

Taxi service will also be available at the Posidonia exhibition centre.

By Public Transport

Metro

Use Line M3 (blue line), stop at Airport. Trains to the airport run every 30 minutes. Shuttle bus service to the Metropolitan Expo is provided.

Suburban Railway

Line Neratziotissa / Doukissis Plakentias / Airport. Stop at Airport. Shuttle bus service to the Metropolitan Expo is provided.

Buses

All Attica's Express buses take you to the Airport (X93 from Kifissos Intercity Bus Station - X95 from Syntagma Square - X96 from Piraeus - X97 from Elliniko). Shuttle bus service to the Metropolitan Expo is provided.

Signage to the Exhibition Centre is available, as well as info kiosks throughout the airport to assist visitors.
